RESPONSIBILITIES.

In the measure allowed by the applicable law, CYPE Ingenieros, S.A. or its distributors will not be responsible for loss of profit or indirect damages that originate as a consequence of the use or being unable to use the Software corresponding to the License for Use, including, without limitation, damages for loss of benefits, business interruption, or any other type of indirect damages, even in the hypothetical case that the Provider has been informed with prior notice of the possibility that such damages might occur.

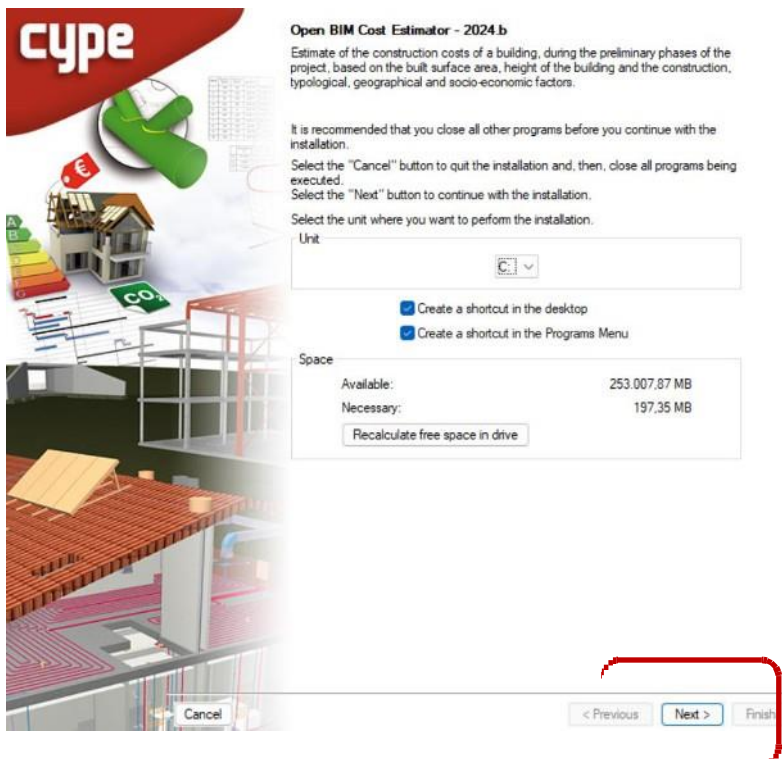

In any case, because it is not permitted to totally guarantee the non-existence of errors in the Software due to the actual state of information technology, the responsibility of the Provider for damages credited directly to the Software will be limited to the price paid by the Licensee for the acquisition of the present Software License for Use.

Files used with one version of the program will not be compatible with previous versions.

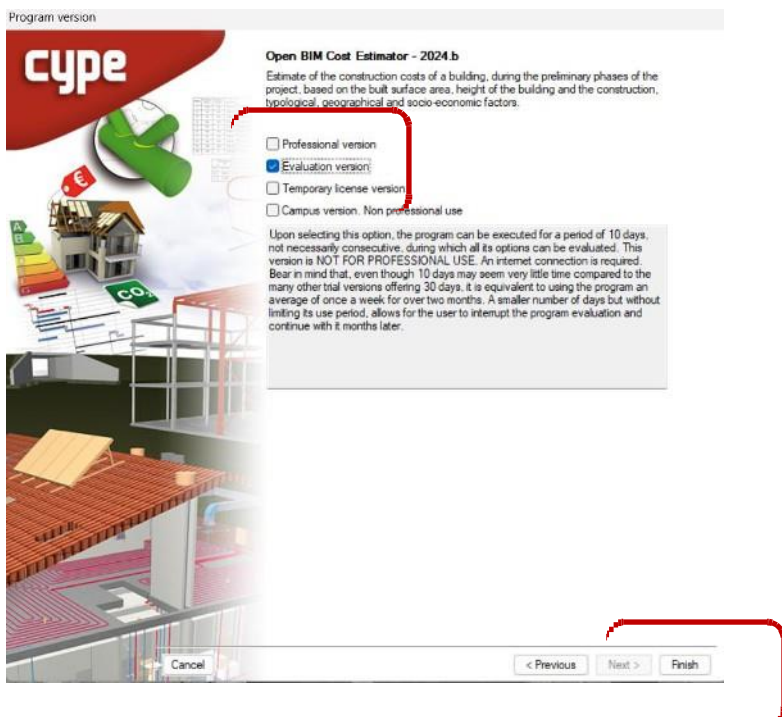

I have carefully read, understand and accept the Responsibility Clause.
